Sustainable Bhutan 2026 - Mission Bhutan

I am pleased to share some memorable moments from our recent visit to the Kingdom of Bhutan from 2nd June to 10th June 2026 under our initiative "Sustainable Bhutan 2026 – Mission Bhutan."

During this visit, we had the privilege of engaging in meaningful discussions with senior representatives from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Ministry of Industry, Commerce & Employment, Ministry of Tourism, the leadership of the Royal Monetary Authority of Bhutan, esteemed members of the Royal Family, and leading corporate and business groups.

The objective of the mission was to explore and strengthen opportunities across:

- Trade & Investment
- Tourism & Hospitality Development
- Infrastructure & Industrial Growth Hubs
- Cross-Border Economic Cooperation
- Sustainable Development Initiatives
- Cultural & Bilateral Partnerships
- Education, Wellness & Community Development

Sustainable Bhutan 2026 - Mission Bhutan

The response received from various stakeholders was extremely positive and encouraging. The openness towards international collaboration, sustainable investments, and responsible economic development demonstrates Bhutan's readiness for the next phase of growth while preserving its unique cultural and environmental identity.

A special note of gratitude to the esteemed members of the Royal Family of Bhutan for their warmth, gracious hospitality, encouragement, and valuable insights during our visit. Their vision, humility, and unwavering commitment towards the well-being and prosperity of the Bhutanese people continue to inspire all who have the opportunity to visit this remarkable nation.

Bhutan remains a unique example for the world. While many countries focus primarily on economic indicators and GDP growth, Bhutan's guiding philosophy of Gross National Happiness (GNH) places happiness, sustainability, environmental preservation, and human well-being at the center of national development.

Sustainable Bhutan 2026 - Mission Bhutan

With strong governance, political stability, a growing economy, abundant natural resources, strategic location, and an investment-friendly ecosystem, Bhutan presents significant opportunities for investors, entrepreneurs, institutions, and development partners seeking long-term sustainable growth.

strongly encourage global investors, business leaders, hospitality groups, infrastructure developers, educational institutions, and wellness organizations to explore Bhutan as a destination for responsible and impactful investments.

Sharing a few moments from this inspiring journey and looking forward to building meaningful partnerships that contribute towards the vision of Sustainable Bhutan 2026.
